All in God’s Family

“But as many as received him, to them he gave the right to be called the children of God...” John 1:12

Fireside chats were a wonderful unifying ingredient in the 1930s and 1940s for our entire nation. I’d like to add our own “Fireside Chats” to our bulleting blogs... today begins our first.

Good morning, Meridian First Baptist Church.

Today I would like us to reflect on two major areas of our church-family-life together. The first topic is UNITY and the second, SERVICE.

“Strive for the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace” (Eph.4:3). What a refreshing family it is that is united and at peace. Here’s a few ways that you can help maintain the unity. Join us for Communion, usually the first Sunday evening service of the month. Be careful, considerate and courteous to others. This means, keep a watch on your children (even teens) that they don’t run around and trip up some of us grandparents. Pick up after yourself and your family. Share with each other and let someone go in front of you (men listen here) at the pie social. Go the extra-mile and invite someone here to one of our church events and/or your own home. Unity takes time and trust. Let’s take the time and trust God who calls us to be united in love.

“Serve one another by love” (Gal. 5:13). There are numerous ways to serve. Here’s some.
Nursery— oh, they are so cute. We NEED volunteers now and we have more babies on the way! Security— what a great opportunity to pray and serve on this team. Bible Day Camp— its just around the corner (evenings June 27-30) and we want you to join our team. Technology— We need sound & computer technicians. Children’s Ministries— We currently need volunteers In the mornings and evenings. Facilities— you can start by riding a John Deere tractor (mower) and move on from there. We will provide on the spot training for all of these opportunities. Call me here at the office and I help get you into service for our God and for His glory.
