Family & Friendly Devotions

Our children are being taught systematically through the WORD of God. In January they started in Genesis and they will continue this study for about 2 1/2 more years by the time they conclude their comprehensive study through the Bible. In order for you as parents, grandparents, caring adults to track along with them and then teach them, we have made available, Generations of Grace Family Devotional Books. Here's a quick look at where we are going in the scope and sequence of our children's classes:
