Excerpts from Good Books

Practical Religion by J.C. Ryle first published 1878
The Banner of Truth Trust 2013

THE BIBLE

"Next to praying, there is nothing so important in practical religion as Bible reading."

"By reading that book we may learn what to believe, what to be, and what to do; how to live with comfort, and how to die in peace."

"There is no knowledge absolutely needful to a man's salvation, except a knowledge of the things which are to be found in the Bible."

"All the education a man's head can receive, will not save his soul from hell, unless he knows the truths of the Bible."

"If he does not know the things of the Bible, he will make shipwreck of his soul for ever."

"No book in existence has produced such wonderful effects on mankind at large as the Bible."

"There are no victories like the victories of the Bible."

"To the influence of the Bible we owe nearly every humane and charitable institution in existence."

"The Bible applied to the heart by the Holy Ghost is the grand instrument by which souls are first converted to God."

"A man must make the Bible his rule of conduct. He must make its leading principles the compass by which he steers his course through life."

"Although men may seem to get on comfortably without the Bible while they live, they may be sure that without the Bible they cannot comfortably die."

"The health of a man's soul may be known by his treatment of the Bible."

"That Bible is read best which is practiced the most."

"The book satisfies and feeds my soul."
